

Union Plus Scholarships

Online application now available!

"Union privileges and standards have provided the foundation for my parents to forge a secure, quality life for us, allowing me to pursue my dreams."

—Maxine Musto

Apply
Online
Now!

Maxine Musto

of Bogota, NJ. Daughter of an AEA member and an AFM Local 802 member, is a Union Plus Scholarship recipient.

Over 2,900 students in union families have received money for college through the Union Plus Scholarship. The online application is available each year starting in June through the deadline on January 31. You can complete the application in stages and save your answers before you submit.

Who can apply:

Current and retired participating union members, their spouses and their dependent children.

What kind of school is eligible:

The scholarship is open to students who attend or plan to attend a U.S. college, university, community college, or a technical/trade school. Students attending undergraduate or graduate schools are eligible.

Scholarship amounts:

Recipients will receive $500 to $4,000.

Deadline to apply:

January 31, 12pm (noon), Eastern Time

Scholarship recipients announced:

May 31

Details and online application available at:
unionplus.org/scholarships

To receive mobile text alerts about education-related deadlines and information, text STUDENT to 22555.

Msg&Data Rates May Apply. Reply STOP to opt-out. Reply HELP or contact info@unionplus.org for help.

UNIONPLUS

unionplus.org/scholarships